

India Giani Fund Scholarship

NNF is happy to announce Offer of India Giani Fund scholarship for our members. Communication from Dr.Vasudeva Kamath is detailed below.

We would like to get talented researchers/teachers/clinicians who could do better in their future years, by seeing things for themselves in a reputed NICU in the US and/or by presenting a poster or a platform presentation of their/his/her research efforts.

Our committee members are senior faculty in Neonatology in the United States.

The application form for this scholarship can be found at the www.aap.org website under the International icon or at the website www.indiagianifund.org. A duly filled application may be sent to me or to the AAP secretariat, Mr. Peyton is the person managing this. Last date is December 1st 2018. The 2019 PAS conference will be in Baltimore late April. Those desirous of sending a research abstract to the PAS have to do so before January 2nd, 2019. Please check the website: <https://2019.pas-meeting.org> for instructions for sending the abstract (s).

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Vasudeva Kamath, MD
